HEADTEACHER'S NOTE

It has been an exceptionally busy week here at DHJS. Y3 became Ancient Greeks, Y6 have been swinging through trees, and Y5 hosted a 'taster lunch'. To wrap-up the week, Miss Thomson and our dance teacher, Alison Swann, organised our first Dance Festival for our Trust primary schools. This morning, our Y5 dancers show-cased their Frankenstein inspired dance, linked to the Y5 literacy unit of work, demonstrating the relationship between creator and monster. It was fab!

Y6 school journey: Wow! As I write, our Y6 cohort are returning from their week long adventure at Green Park in Aston Clinton. I do hope you have been following our twitter feed this week. You only have to skim through the pictures to see the children engaged in a wide variety of activities – the many smiles say it all. I visited this new school journey on Tuesday and arrived to see the Leap of Faith in full-flow. I graciously declined the opportunity to have a go! I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Y6 school journey staff team. They have worked hard not only this week, but for many months planning this opportunity to give the children a rich experience.

Many happy memories have been created that will stay with the children for years to come...

TCSET SPRING MAGAZINE

The latest issue of The Charter Magazine is out now, our regular review of the exciting work happening in our family of schools across the Trust - available to read online HERE.

This issue includes an in depth look at some of the fantastic music that is happening our Trust, including reports on some of the first live performances since Covid restrictions were lifted. We also have features on art, reading and careers together with a roundup of some of the amazing and varied events and activities in each of our schools.

The magazine is a celebration of the creativity and fun that all our staff and pupils work hard on during the year, and we hope that you enjoy reading about it as much as we enjoyed pulling the stories together. We always welcome feedback, so if you have any comments about the Magazine or any other Trust matters, please do get in touch by emailing info@tcset.org.uk
