Dear Parents and Carers,

Rise Together – Art Competition

Dulwich Hamlet have been invited to enter this space themed art competition. We know we have many talented artists amongst our pupils as well as those children (and adults) who are fascinated by all things, 'space'.

The competition is open to (primary school) children and involves designing a poster of what space means to them. We want children to be as creative as possible. It can be the Earth or the Moon and stars. Rockets and robots. It could be other planets or even things you love, like your family or pets. There is no wrong answer.

Harwell Campus does a lot of work in the space sector and they have launched this competition working with the NASA astronaut, Nicole Stott. Any children who enter this competition will be able to see their work on the big screen in Piccadilly Circus on Monday 9th October 2023 from 6.15pm. The picture display/video will last approximately 10 minutes and there maybe the opportunity to meet Nicole Stott. Commander Susan Kilrain will also be there.

There's a video from Nicole here: <https://www.harwellcampus.com/risetogether/>

If you would like to meet Nicole Stott, do feel free to contact Dan Metcalfe, Hamlet parent and Director for Community, Communications and Marketing for Harwell. Contact him via email: dan.metcalfe@harwellcampus.com

You don't have long to enter the deadline is Friday 29th September; you could be in with a chance to win a telescope.

Find out how to enter here <https://www.harwellcampus.com/risetogether/> Please note all entries must be entered via the website, we cannot accept any entries at school.

Good luck!
