Are you enthusiastic and positive? Do you share our passion for inclusive practice? Are you able to adapt your approach to meet the needs of children with SEND?

We are seeking a teaching assistant to work at Dulwich Hamlet: an Ofsted Outstanding Junior School in Dulwich Village. You will be working with children in whole class settings, as well as supporting individuals and groups of learners during the core day.

We are looking for someone who is passionate about working with children, including those with additional needs, and demonstrates flexibility and creativity in their approach. The successful candidate must have:

- ✓ GCSE (or equivalent) Maths & English at grade C or above
- ✓ Previous experience of working with children with additional needs (3–11), preferably in a school setting
- ✓ NVQ TA, degree or teaching qualifications (desirable, but not essential)

Why Dulwich Hamlet?

We can offer you an inclusive, welcoming team with a family feel; senior leaders committed to your professional development and children who embody our values of enjoyment, integrity, respect, independence and resilience.

Please call Susan Roberts on 0207 525 9188/9 for further information. An application form, job description and person specification can be downloaded from our website <http://www.dulwichhamletjuniorschool.org.uk>
