HEADTEACHER'S NOTE

I'm looking forward to our Summer Fair, which will begin at 12:30pm tomorrow. I'm also looking forward to my first Pimms of the year! We have our Steel Pan ensembles entertaining us from 1pm; with lots of stalls and activities to get involved in. Together with the Christmas Fair, this is our biggest fundraiser of the year. Please come along and support the PTA who have worked so hard behind the scenes to rally you all and organise this incredible event on behalf of our Hamlet community.

Just to reiterate my message from last week: If we can ensure it is 'all hands on deck' after the event, it would be much appreciated. Having the school 'Monday morning ready' will support both the premises and teaching teams – thank you in advance. The PTA have also mentioned that they still have quite a few gaps on the 'job rota' too. Please come forward and offer your support, even if it is a short time. All help is warmly welcomed.

A 'well done' must go to all of Y4 for completing their national online Multiplication Tables Check this week. We're really

DULWICH CAMP FUNDRAISER 2024!

From the organisers of the Dulwich Camp 2024:

We hope all the campers are fully recovered! Together we raised a massive £7362, which will be split equally between Dulwich Village C of E Infants' School and Dulwich Hamlet. Thank you so much for supporting the event.

PARENTAL VOICE: YOUR THOUGHTS ON CHILDREN AND SMARTPHONES

Many thanks to the 211 of you that responded to the recent parent-led survey on children and smartphones. We have received a summary of the responses today, which is available for you to view here.

We appreciate you taking the time to share your views and your suggestions for how our school can better support all families in making decisions about technology use, which we will now take the time to read through and consider. There will also be a parent-led 'Smartphone Free Childhood' stand at the fair on Saturday and we encourage you to visit this to find out more on this topic and alternative options available.
